He has been appointed priest to Millbank Penitentiary, which brings a salary of £80 p.a. and hopes to be appointed to Tothill Fields Prison. 32	Letter from [Fr] Reginald Colley SJ [Provincial] to the Father Procurator [Fr George Sidgreaves SJ] . The refuge at Ditton is overcrowded with children and they are worried about a visit from the sanitary inspectors. The lawyers need to be hurried up. The money from the Newburgh fund should not be paid annually. When St Mary's closes it can be paid to another of the Society's churches. The Martin fund will be reallocated to Stamford Hill by the Father General, together with all that is received from Westminster, and there is nothing that can be done about that.	[Fr]Reginald Colley SJ [Provincial]	30 April 1901
33	Letter from [Fr] Henry Martin SJ to Fr [George] Sidgreaves SJ. Concerning the Newburgh Trust, he considers the money was left by Lady Newburgh to the Society not to the mission at Westminster, and that she did not consider the possibility of them leaving Westminster. He suggests that Fr Scoles SJ might be able to shed more light on the matter.	[Fr] Henry Martin SJ	31 March 1903
34	Letter from [Fr] Scoles [SJ] to Fr [George] Sidgreaves [SJ]. He argues that the wording of the Newburgh Trust means that the money was given for Masses to be said at St Mary's and not given to the Society. Lady Newburgh was a friend of the Society's and did not envisage that St Mary's would close, but the words used make it hard to argue that her money should not be used by the priests among the people of St Mary's.	[Fr] Scoles [SJ]	03 April 1903
