|-------|--|-------------------------|------------------|
| 80-81 | Letter from [Fr] A[lfred] Weld [SJ], Fiesole, reporting that letters to and from South Africa have been waylaid. Weld expresses concern that the Boers will not give clemency to Catholic missionaries in the Transvaal. | [Fr] A[lfred] Weld [SJ] | 30 March 1881 |
| 82-83 | Letter from [Fr] A[lfred] Weld [SJ], Fiesole, describing the progress of his fund-raising activities and the arrangements being made with the Portuguese. | [Fr] A[lfred] Weld [SJ] | 26 March 1881 |
| 84-85 | Letter from [Fr] A[lfred] Weld [SJ] Fiesole, on the news that Fr Terorde has died from poisoning or fever at Masembi's kraal. A letter from Fr de Wit has been brought to Kimberley by an Englishman but it does not shed light on Fr Law's fate. The rumour in Grahamstown is that one of Fr law's party is dead. | [Fr] A[lfred] Weld [SJ] | 11 March 1881 |
| 86-87 | Letter from [Fr] A[lfred] Weld [SJ]. Fiesole, on the news of a letter from Fr Charles Croonenberghs at Gubuluwayo reporting that a wagon has been recovered [presumably in relation to Fr Law's party]. Weld reports on a meeting with d'Andrada who is supporting the Portuguese missions in [Mozambique] and is inclined to support the Zambesi mission. | [Fr] A[lfred] Weld [SJ] | 9 March 1881 |
| 88-89 | Letter from [Fr] John Lea [SJ] at St Aidan's, Grahamstown, to Fr [Alfred] Weld [SJ], with a letter from Fr de Wit but no news of Fr Law or about the wagon that left Gubulawayo under Mr Grant. Lea has met Mr [Courtney] Selous, a hunter, who accompanied Law part of the way to Umzila's kraal; Selous has heard from the natives that Fr Wehl, the two brothers and their wagon are at Umzila's kraal, and that Fr Terorde is dead. The fate of Fr Law, according to Selous, is unknown. | [Fr] John Lea [SJ] | 25 February 1881 |

90-91

Letter from [Fr] A[lfred] Weld [SJ] on the news that he has received a letter from Fr Law at Umzila's kraal, dated 31 October [1880]. Law had suffered from a fever but Weld hopes he will hold out until the party from Gubuluwayo reaches him. Law's letter describes how the Sabi river proved very difficult to cross, the wagon had to be abandoned and the party continued on foot, Fr Wehl went ahead of the party but seems to have been lost. Law reported that Umzila had sent some of his people to recover Br de Sadeleer and the wagon.

[Fr] A[lfred] Weld

11 February 1881

Fr Law was accompanied by Fr Charles Wehl and Brs Hedley and Sadeleer to Umzila's territory. Wehl became lost during the journey and was presumed dead. Law and the brothers continued to Umzila's kraal, but had to abandon their wagon. Sadeleer went back to the wagon and then on to seek help, but Law and Hedley stayed in their hut. Law said his last Mass there on 10 October 1880 and continued to write his diary until 13 October 1880. He died on 25 November 1880.

92-93 Letter from [Fr] A[lfred] Weld [SJ] on the plans to head to Sofola [Mozambique] to find out what has happened to Fr Law. There has been no news of Fr Depelchin.

[Fr] A[lfred] Weld
[SJ]

3 February 1881

94-95 Letter from [Fr] John Lea [SJ] at St Aidan's College, Grahamstown, to Fr Sidgreaves [SJ] reporting the college is very full at present, as owing to the war, the missionaries have not been able to depart up-country. Fr Lea has received no news of Fr Law or Fr Depelchin.
